

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Norman Vearle Taylor has been employed since November 15, 1970 for the Lower Brule Agency in Lower Brule, South Dakota, and then on June 14, 1981, Norman was transferred to the Crow Creek Agency in Fort Thompson, South Dakota, as a supervisory police officer; and,

WHEREAS, Norman has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Norman was also a patriotic citizen of South Dakota and the United States when he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps from May 23, 1957 through May 22, 1960; and,

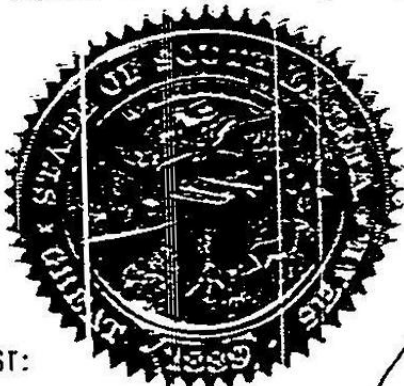

WHEREAS, Norman is a devoted husband to his wife, Ramona; and,

WHEREAS, On July 28, after 19 years of service as a police officer to both the Lower Brule and the Fort Thompson Agencies and this great state, Norman is retiring:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 28, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him an enjoyable retirement and good luck in the future.

NORMAN VEARLE TAYLOR DAY
